Gregorian Chant Practicum

Presented by
Fr. Robert Fromageot, FSSP

On January 30th 2010 a.D. the St. John Bosco Latin Mass Community is proud to host Fr. Robert Fromageot, FSSP who will conduct a Gregorian Chant Practicum at Sacred Heart of Jesus Catholic Church in Cicero, IN at 10 am. Fr. Fromageot is a professor of Dogmatic Theology at the Priestly Fraternity of Saint Peter's North American Seminary of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Denton, NE as well as the Music Director at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Lincoln, NE. Father has conducted numerous Practicum's on Gregorian Chant, he was a recent guest of EWTN's Life on the rock where he spoke on Gregorian Chant, and how it helps the liturgy fulfill its twofold end; namely, the worship of God and the sanctification of souls.

The Practicum will consist of 3 parts:

- I. Introduction to chant
- II. Basics of Chant
- III. Chant Practicum (Chant Workshop)
-Missa de Angelis

The practicum is open to everyone. No matter if you are a novice or an expert, it will enrich your understanding of Gregorian chant. If you have any questions please feel free to contact Mr. Terry Garrity at 317-984-9158 or 317-984-3358. Also, you may visit our website at www.uvcarmel.org. Cost: Free will donations accepted.

About the Dinner

The pasta main entrée will be provided as well as dinner service (plates, napkins, silverware, cups). This is a pitch-in dinner but you are welcome to attend whether or not you're able to bring a side dish.

Feast of St. John Bosco

This is the patron saint of the [Latin] Mass in the Extraordinary Form apostolate in the Carmel Deanery supported locally by Una Voce, the organization providing support internationally for the traditional Latin Mass.

Why attend?

Holy Mother Church has many beautiful rites to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar. Come enjoy the extraordinary form of the Liturgy. This Sunday Mass fulfills your Sunday obligation. Bring a friend!
